H. Warner Dies At Age Of 98

Harry Warner, Channel Lake died at the age of 98 years last Thursday evening, April 16, at his home.

Mr. Warner died, apparently of old age, at about 8 p.m. His health had been failing for some time.

Harry Warner had maintained a summer home in Sun-Side subdivision at Channel Lake since 1923. He made Channel Lake his permanent home after he retired in 1935. He was the first president of the Sun-Side Subdivision Association, and served in that capacity for 22 years. He initiated many improvements in the subdivision and ironed out the many problems that arise in such an organization.

Warner was born on December 19, 1865, in Havana, Illinois. His family moved to Chicago when he was seven years old. His father was business manager of the Chicago Tribune. He was a veritable storehouse of memories of Chicago before the turn of the century, the Illinois Theater fire, the old Chicago before the day of the automobile. His first job was with Marshall Field Co., then Field, Leiter and Palmer, at $4.00 a week. He worked for the C&N railroad for about ten years as a travelling accountant, then for many years as chief examiner for the Interstate Commerce Commission. He retired in 1935.

Mr. Warner was preceded in death by his wife, Dede, who died in August, 1944, and by a son, Alden, who was killed during World War I. (Warner was a direct descendant of John Alden.)

He is survived by a son, Stanley, of Traverse City, Michigan, and by a daughter, Mrs. Hazel MacGowan, of Santa Ana, California, one grandson, William MacGowan, Salt Lake City, Utah, and two great-grandchildren.

Always civic-minded, Warner had an unflinching interest in, and faith in, the youth of the community. In an interview by a reporter of this paper in 1959, when asked to what he attributed his long life, Warner replied, "Contentment, and tending to my own business."

Graveside services were held at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 18, at Forest Home cemetery in Forest Park, Ill. Rev. Carroll Lindemann of the Antioch Evangelical Free Church officiated. Friends called at the Strang Funeral Home in Antioch on Friday evening only.

Daylight Saving Time Starts Next Sunday

It's that time again—the time to remind everyone to set your clock ahead an hour next Saturday night (or Sunday morning, if you prefer).

The time change will occur officially at 2 a.m. Sunday morning, April 26. Most people will set the clock ahead before retiring Saturday night.

The Choir will perform at the Spring Concert at the High School on May 2. The Band will perform at the Fine Arts Dept. Awards night at the school on May 16. Joseph Rush directs the Antioch High School Band.

Politicos To Pick County Chairmen

By Lou Durkin

Leadership of the Republican and Democratic parties in Lake County will go on the block at the official conventions of the Lake County Central Committees of the two parties in Waukegan Monday at 8 p.m.

Robert J. Milton, of Lake Forest, will gavel the Republican precinct committeemen to order in the Little Theater on the East Campus of Waukegan High School while his counterpart, William Hartnett, of Grayslake, will call the Democrats into session at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Club, 124 S. Utica St.

Dates for the two conventions are set by state statutes which also provide that the organizing sessions of the two parties take place in the county seat.

Top order of business for both parties will be the election of a chairman and other officers who will head the group for the next two years.

Milton, who is completing his third term as GOP chairman, has announced that he will seek re-election, but faces a tough fight for the party leadership.

The veteran party leader won a hotly contested election two years ago against John Babcox, a county employee and Cuba Township precinct committeeman.

Prior to last Tuesday's primary election Babcox had been mentioned prominently as a probable candidate for the chairman post again, but with the defeat of William J. Scott for the GOP gubernatorial nomination, his chances for election faded.

Milton, on the other hand, under fire from many sides during the past two years, moved into a position of power because of his early, active support of the candidacy of Charles Percy, the GOP winner.

Milton's strongest opposition is expected to come from State Rep. John Conolly, who topped the balloting in the State Representative delegate race and also won his bid for the precinct committeeman post in Warren 6.

Conolly threw his hat into the ring as soon as he learned he had defeated veteran Noris Roberts for the committeeman post.

A late comer to the race is Assistant State's Attorney Thomas Doran, of Mendedoin, who announced over the weekend that he would seek the chairman post.

Forces opposed to the re-election of Milton will no doubt try to join hands behind one candidate or the other.

E. A. Heppner, Round Lake industrialist, has also been mentioned as a possible candidate and may emerge as a "compromise" choice if the Conolly and Doran groups fail to reach agreement.

The Democratic race is also up for grabs since Hartnett, who was one of two victors in the Democratic race for delegate to the state representative convention, has indicated he will not seek a second term as chairman.

Result Of Coroner Race Clouded By Tampering Charge

Votes, votes, who's got the votes?

That's the question at the Lake County Courthouse as a canvass of the votes cast in the April 14th Primary uncovered tampering with the tally sheets.

Votes cast for Robert "Mickey" Babcox and Orville "Pat" Clavey, both seeking the Republican nomination for Coroner of Lake County, are the subject of the dispute. Clavey was the unofficial winner of the nomination. However, the canvass board found discrepancies between the tally sheets from three precincts, to date, and the unofficial count.

Shields precinct 9 was the first to show a discrepancy. Unofficially, Clavey defeated Babcox. The tally sheet showed Babcox beating Clavey.

Waukegan precinct 2 and Cuba precinct 1 were next to vary from unofficial reports. Waukegan 2 had reportedly given Clavey the nod, but the tally sheet showed 276 for Babcox and 145 for Clavey. In Cuba 1 the tally sheet showed Babcox 266, Clavey 124. Clavey had been reported the winner earlier.

County Clerk Garfield Leaf called in election judges from the precincts in question. They testified that the tally sheets had been changed, and that the unofficial report had been correct.

The canvass board still has 53 precincts to go. There are 211 precincts in the county. Neither Babcox nor Clavey has said whether they would ask for a recount of the actual ballots. Such a recount would cost approximately $10,000, to be paid by whomever requested the recount.

The actual ballots are being guarded around the clock by sheriff's deputies. Babcox has requested that state troopers also be brought in to guard the ballot boxes.

A.C.H.S. Board Reorganizes

The Antioch Community High School Board canvassed the votes cast in the school election at the regular board meeting Wednesday night, April 15. 706 ballots were cast in the election of the High School board April 11.

The three successful candidates re-elected, William Brook, Roger Prossie and Helen Kopriva, were sworn in for their new terms of office by Dr. Richard Ripley, board secretary.

The board then elected officers. Robert Denman, president of the board for six of the seven years he has served, was elected president; Dr. Richard Ripley was re-elected as secretary. The board will continue to meet on the third Wednesday of the month, meeting at 8 p.m., DST, during the summer months and at 7:30 p.m., CST, during the winter.

A new investment committee, composed of William Brook, chairman, Roger Prossie and Robert Denman was appointed.

A resolution was approved to invest $110,000 in Treasury bills, all coming due in 1964, $10,000 due on July 15, $40,000 on June 18, $30,000 on August 20 and $30,000 on September 17.

The resignations of several teachers were accepted by the board. Those resigning are Della Mae Tronchuk, vocal teacher, after 3 years' service; Elizabeth Kitchell, Dean of Girls, after 1 year; and Bernard Fossmark, English Department. The resignation of Margaret Moorman, (Continued on page three)

J. Dupre's Are Bridge Champs

Mr. and Mrs. John Dupre became the Bridge Champions of Antioch Monday night when they defeated Charlotte Queen and Mildred Gaston in the finals of the Lions Club sponsored tournament.

The Dupres and the second place winners, Gaston-Queen will be invited to a Lions Club meeting in the near future where they will be awarded their respective trophies.

The consolation bracket champion will also be hosted by the Lions club and receive their award. The final consolation match had not been played at this printing but will feature Mr. and Mrs. DeBoer vs. the team of Janet Brook and Louise Murrie.

Plane Flips Over On Lake Marie

Two men in a seaplane which was flipped over in Lake Marie by the high winds Tuesday morning were uninjured.

The two were Blaine R. Worden, 611 N. Church St., Richland, Wis., and Leroy Clifton, 5728 S. Maplewood, Chicago. Clifton, a licensed pilot was taking instructions in operating a seaplane.

The men had not taken off, because of the wind. They were taxiing around Lake Marie when the wind caught the plane and tipped it over.

The Antioch Rescue Squad was called. However, a boat from Sequoit Harbor had already gone out to pick up the men.

The plane, the property of Wayne Carpenter of Waukegan, was based at Paul Figis' Camp on the southeast shore of Lake Marie.

Pupils & Scouts Take Part In NICC Arbor Day Programs

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club hosted 153 Boy and Girl Scouts on a day-long trip to Kettle Moraine Forest last Saturday.

The three busloads of children left Channel Lake School at 9 a.m. Saturday morning. At the park, luncheon was a cook-out and the group heard a lecture by a Forest Ranger on trees and tree planting and the history of the park. Scouts and adult leaders and Club members then went on a 2½ mile hike through the forest.

NICC members who accompanied the Scouts on the trip were Richard Waters, president; Dr. George W. Jensen, Club forester and treasurer; Harry Stern, publicity director; Nick Bakato, Edward Kugel and Chuck Miller.

Scouts and leaders who took the trip were 25 boys from Fox Lake Troop 81 with Scoutmaster Bernie Beck; 10 boys from Antioch Troop 91 with Scoutmaster Richard Harland; 10 boys from Pack

88, Channel Lake, with Pack Leader Elmer Meierdick; 60 boys from Antioch Pack 300 with Pack Leader Mr. Bogarts; 14 boys from Troop 581 with Scoutmaster Nat Dukato; 24 girls from Troop 269, Lindenhurst, with Leader Mrs. Sokup and 10 girls from Troop 204, Channel Lake, with Leader Diana Ormen.

The Kettle Moraine trip was part of a program the NICC has instituted to instill an interest in conservation in school children. Another phase of this program is their yearly program of tree-planting at various schools in our area, usually arranged to take place on or near Arbor Day.

Several hundred trees will be furnished to school children by the NICC this week. Trees were planted by the school children at Lotus School Monday, April 20, under the supervision of Dr. George Jensen. Pupils at Grass Lake School will plant trees supplied by the club at 1:00 p.m. today (Thursday). Tomorrow, April 24 (Arbor Day) pupils of Channel Lake School will plant trees under supervision of Club members at Oak Point State Park at Channel Lake.

School children may also avail themselves of the opportunity to "buy a tree" to plant at home on the day that the Club supplies the trees to the school. Pupils can buy a tree for a few cents to take home and plant and watch it grow.

Ray Page, State Superintendent of Schools, is urging school administrators and teachers throughout the state to observe "Arbor and Bird Day" on April 24, with special programs.

Page requested that the day be observed by planting vines, plants, shrubs and trees to beautify public grounds and to impress on school children the importance of fostering and protecting trees and birds.

Choirs Presenting 1-Act Folk Opera

A Spring Choral Concert at the Antioch High School on Saturday, May 2, will feature the Senior Choir, the Girls' Glee Club and the Swing Choir.

Sponsored by the Fine Arts Dept. of the school, the highlight of the concert will be the presentation of Kurt Weill's one-act folk opera, "Down in the Valley."

Each choir will present two selections during the first portion of the concert. The Senior Choir will sing "The Last Words of David" by Randall Thompson and "Afterglow" by Debussy. These two selections were sung at the State Music organization contest at Evergreen Park, April 18, at which time the choir received a rating of "excellent."

The Girls' Glee Club will offer two light selections, "Out of My Dreams" from "Oklahoma," and a choral novelty "Down by the Station."

The Swing Choir will sing the Academy Award nominee

"Charade" by Henry Mancini, and "Luck Be a Lady" from "Guys and Dolls."

Miss Della Mae Tronchuk, choral director, and Cheryl Folbrick, graduating accompanist, will perform a piano duo, "Danse Russe" from the ballet "Petrouchka." Two grand pianos will be used for this performance.

The second portion of the concert will be the presentation of "Down in the Valley." This short opera is based on five American folk songs—

"Down in the Valley," "The Lonesome Dove," "The Little Black Train," "Hop Up, My Ladies," and "Sourwood Mountain." The leading roles will be taken by Susan Bushnell, Lloyd Pedersen, William Serhson, and John D. Horton. Minor roles are being handled by Wayne Sobczak, Roger Eberman and Robert Thomley.

The Senior Choir will make up the chorus.

The public is invited. Tickets may be purchased at the door. The concert will start at 8 p.m.

Federal Grant to Lake Co. for Sewers

Total construction cost of the project is estimated at $540,500. Construction is to begin in 1965. The grant was made by the Housing and Home Finance Agency, Community Facilities Administration.

Public Aid Rolls Up In February

Springfield, Ill.—In February, there were reductions in the Old Age Assistance, Blind Assistance, Disability Assistance and General Assistance rolls, and increase in the number of persons receiving Aid to Dependent Children. Harold O. Swank, director of the Illinois Department of Public Aid, today said there was an over-all increase of 1,178 persons on public aid in February, 1964, over the previous month, due mainly to seasonal factors.

There were 434,218 persons receiving public aid in February compared to 433,040 in January. The February, 1964 caseload was 13,708 persons, or 3.1 per cent below the February, 1963 total of 447,926.

2,758 persons in Lake County received a total of $132,143 from Public Aid in the month of February, 1964.

Mental Health Ball Is Highlight Of Week's Activities

Mental Health Week will start in Lake County, and the rest of Illinois, on Sunday, April 26, and end May 2.

Several activities are planned, under the sponsorship of the Lake County Mental Health Society, to alert residents to the need for more work in this field.

Wayne King, the Waltz King, will supply the music for the Mental Health Ball on Tuesday night, May 5, at the Waukegan Rink Ballroom. Dancing will be from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., with refreshments available.

In the Antioch area, tickets may be purchased at the Antioch Laundrette, State Bank of Antioch and King's Drug Store. They are also available from Mrs. Richard Ripley, chairman of the Ball, from Board members of the Mental Health Society and from the Mental Health Clinic, or at the door. Ticket chairmen for Antioch are Mrs. Clifford Randall, Mrs. Howard Rippberger and Mrs. Anton Stanich.

One activity, a series of four monthly seminars for high school counselors, started earlier in the year. Another activity will be a showing of the film, "The 91st Day."

During Mental Health Week two pamphlets will be distributed to High School students. The pamphlets, "Facts About Mental Health" and "Because You Like People—Choose a Career in Mental Health" are to create a discussion and point up the need for more trained people. Antioch High School students will receive the pamphlets.

Vote on Conservancy Next

How are you going to vote on May 23?

You hadn't even realized there was a need to vote on that date? Well, we'll bet a lot of people don't.

Whether or not to establish a Conservancy District which will take in portions of Lake and McHenry Counties is the issue. People who live in the village of Antioch won't be voting on this issue—though they may well be affected by it, if it's approved. People living in most of the rural areas around Antioch will be included in the district, if the referendum is approved, and will be taxed to support the District.

Purpose of the proposed District is to clean-up the lakes and streams of the Fox River Valley. A laudable aim, but a tremendous job. A job which will require more money than can be collected by the Conservancy District on the amount of money it's asking for.

Presumably, both the Lake County Health Department and the Lake County Department of Public Works are already working on this problem, plus a good many civic associations scattered throughout the County. Both the Lake County Health Dept. and Public Works, plus civic associations, are solidly against the formation of the Conservancy District.

It will take all the cooperation of organizations and individuals living in the county that can be mustered to make any real progress against the knotty problem of water pollution. The Conservancy District obviously is not going to get the cooperation of the groups who are now fighting its formation. With tax money, authority and efforts further divided, it seems more likely to slow progress in the water pollution problem in Lake County than to speed it up.

Once approved, the powers of the Conservancy District are apparently very broad, and the limits of their power rather vague. They can, apparently, insist that neighboring villages, such as Antioch, take steps to remove effluent from sewage before discharging it into streams; they can build streets and sidewalks, purchase and condemn land.

The Conservancy District could, under able leadership and with the cooperation of the citizens, do the job it's being formed to do; it could dwindle into a useless government bureau which would eat up tax money better spent elsewhere without producing any results; or it could become an expensive Frankenstein monster, balking efforts of other Lake County departments and civic organizations.

You have a month in which to make up your mind whether or not you want to pay more taxes to find out.

Along The Way with ANNIE MAE

Didja' ever wish that some absent minded professor would come up with an invention that you feel very necessary, but your clever ingenuity cannot quite contrive? How about some keen mind working on such things as...

A flip, zip, or lift-off packaging for the poor antiquated "flour" bag. One that isn't cemented on both ends and spews flour all over the counter top when finally in desperation one rips the entire covering apart.

Bright colored sheets of wax paper, instead of the transparent ones now used, to be placed between the slices of cheese, to warn unsuspecting husbands on midnight refrigerator raids.

A warning device installed in ball point pens to let you know they are going to run dry in the middle of an important letter.

A mechanical "thumb" to open all boxes that subtly state, "to open, push here." How about a typewriter that corrects your (No, MY) misspelled words automatically. (Did I hear Mabel silently say Amen?)

We are all anxiously awaiting word from the fellow who is working on a "No-Cal" Martini.

Every woman would be delighted with solid rubber fenders on automobiles that would bounce off any object contacted.

Now that this has stimulated the inventive genius in each and everyone of you, how about submitting some Rubie Goldberg you have been secretly dreaming of? Oh! Annie thinks it would be fun to print one every once in a while. Who knows, we may uncover the inventor of the year!

FEATHER IN MY CAP DEPT.: Bustin' my buttons to tell you that this gal beat the front page to the draw about our Antioch Grade School Band playing in Springfield for the Governor.

DID YOU HEAR? The definition of a Lame Duck? A politician whose goose has been cooked. And that's what you call flaming Duck, Blaze away, Annie Mae

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sirs:

During Girl Scout Week, our girls were asked to write Thank You notes to all people who have helped Girl Scouts in any form, whether it be sponsorship, material, transportation, training, etc.

These letters were then posted in the Linden Plaza, window of Mr. Engle's store. It was a very nice display with emphasis on Our Laws, Promise, and Dedication. Flags, crafts, too, were displayed.

I am speaking for more than myself, when we say we feel publicity of what our girls are doing, is very important. More comments come to leaders, that parents do not know what troops are doing, and many people are discouraged because such comments are false. Planning committees and cooperation are needed, and people involved should be acknowledged, and this is what I felt was stressed, when our troop was requested to Thank Everyone, because without your help our neighborhood, Council and parents, we as Leaders can't do it alone.

Many of us don't realize that there are really so many people helping in so many different ways. Therefore I feel very strongly, that news of troops, in their specific neighborhoods, or areas should be published under their own neighborhood news, otherwise if only troop numbers are mentioned, people not associated closely with Girl Scouts don't know one number from another.

We have taken the troop to Lake Villa Record Wednesday. The girls sure enjoyed their trip, and how proud they felt when the picture was taken, and will be in the paper next week, and they saw how the paper was printed. I'm sure every girl will get extra copies to send to relatives.

In the name of our troop, I'd like to thank you folks for all the pleasure you've given us.

Sincerely
Mrs. Harold Sokup
Leader of Troop 269

"Thank You Folks" of the Antioch News, for publishing our troop news. We didn't realize that our news also reached Antioch, as we thought Mrs. Bernau's column was only in the Lake Villa Record.

My Dad's friend keeps us informed, that Troop No. 269 was in your fine newspaper, last week another person also said our Easter Egg hunt was in the News, with Brownie Troop No. 60. It makes us feel real happy, that people know the things we Girl Scouts do. We appreciate it very much.

Therefore I "thank you" for our troop.

Sincerely,
Donna Sokup

The Antioch News
Antioch, Illinois
Dear Editor:
Your editorial for National Library Week was excellent. I read it with interest and pleasure.

You mentioned that the Antioch Township Library is run on a budget of about $13,000 a year. This is a "bare bones" budget. Salaries, building cost and maintenance, and book buying are held to a minimum to fit this "bare bones" budget.

If the citizens of Antioch Township wonder why so little money is given to the maintenance of the public library, a glance at your next tax bill will tell you. The library levy is .035 or 3 1/2 cents for every $100 of valuation. Illinois State law permits 20c.

Why is Antioch's (and many other libraries') levy so low? It was frozen at this rate during the depression years by the Hodge Act (that's right, he's the gentleman now selling hardware). The tax rate can be changed to meet more realistically the many needs of a growing community. The way to change it is by a referendum vote. I think it is time we held such a vote.

Thank you again for your words of encouragement. I am sure that Miss Williams and her staff and the members of the Library Board need and deserve all the help we can give them.

Sincerely yours,
Marian Harden
(Mrs. C. F. Harden)

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DUNNIN

The defeat of Coroner Robert (Mickey) Babcox in last week's primary election marked the first time in more than a score of years that an incumbent had been defeated in a county race with the exception of 1956 when Judge Thomas J. Moran ousted State's Attorney Robert C. Nelson.

At that time, however, Nelson was already in personal and professional difficulty, a condition that was probably more responsible for his defeat than the campaign tactics and personality of Judge Moran who was making his first political venture.

The ink had hardly dried on the official canvass of votes before speculation began about the political future of Babcox and there has naturally been considerable conversation about the possibility that he will seek the Republican nomination for sheriff two years from now.

Certainly Babcox cannot be considered politically dead despite the surprising upset of last week and he will almost certainly continue to be active in the political arena.

There will be no shortage of possible candidates for sheriff and you already hear mention of various possibilities in addition to Babcox.

Sheriff's Police Captain Harold Scheske, who has been wanting to run for the office for several years (is almost certain to enter the fray this time and of course former sheriff Norris Froelich has just been bidding his time as chief deputy since Sheriff Charles Larson moved into the office.

Chief investigator Jake Repp is another member of the sheriff's staff who would like to move into the top spot so there is a good chance of a wide open race among deputies.

Waukegan Police Captain John Brake is mentioned as a possible candidate each time the season rolls around and it wouldn't be surprising if he tried on one of those sheriff's sombreros for size.

Already an avowed candidate is Hal Gale, former Chicago police officer who now operates a "private eye" agency in Libertyville.

Immediate interest, however, shifts to the Republican and Democratic Central Committee conventions.

Atty. Bill Harnett, who scored an easy victory in the state representative race, is expected to be a shoe-in for the Democratic chairmanship although he will undoubtedly have some opposition.

Not so certain is the Republican picture although the overwhelming victory scored by Charles F. Carpenter as the obvious favorite of a large majority of the committeemen in Lake County.

Much of the criticism directed against Milton at that time was wiped out by Percy at the polling places throughout the state.

Don't be surprised, however, if Milton steps aside in the interest of party harmony and throws his weight to a less controversial chairman candidate and then sets himself up as the power behind the throne.

Antioch Supervisor Lloyd (Red) Murrie has emerged as a new powerhouse on the Lake County Board of Supervisors with his appointment as chairman of the powerful Finance Committee.

Murrie, who withdrew from the race for county board chairman in favor of Benton Supervisor Kenneth Henke, who went on to capture the post, is also on the Lake County Building Commission and the Lake County Liquor Control Commission.

Dropped from the finance committee where he served with distinction for many years was Waukegan Supervisor August Cepon, who opposed Henke in the chairmanship race.

Cepon, however, remains as chairman of the building commission.

SPEAKING TO YOU

By John Teresi
Director of Social Studies,
Rockford East High School

If the Wisconsin primary means what it appears to mean, there are bad times ahead, for the Democratic party and for the nation. This appears to be a white revolt, a counter revolution, against the Negro demands for equal rights of citizenship. If this is an accurate gauge of the feeling of white America, we are in for a period of violence and bloodshed.

If you want to know how the Negro feels, imagine that your children attend run down schools with ancient textbooks and a largely imaginary laboratory equipment and with teachers ill-trained and underpaid. Imagine that few jobs were open to you except the ones that the white man did not want; that you were the last hired and the first fired. Imagine that you could not buy a home in a decent part of town and that most of your race was crowded into a shocking black ghetto without sanitation, without heat, without decency.

I know what the racists answer to all this and there is a small grain of truth in it. If you are honest, you will reject it as the answer. For a minute let's look at it through the eyes of the Negro. For a minute think as the Negro thinks, feel what it is like to be a second-class citizen.

Remember the little colored girl back in the early 40's who wrote an answer to the question: What kind of punishment should be given to Adolf Hitler? Her answer was a classic in brevity: "Color him black and let him live in America." The world that the Negro sees is vastly different than the view from a suburban ranch house or a white farm home.

Under the best of circumstances, the Negro has a long hard journey to reach his hopes. The cards are stacked against him. It will not be easier for him to get a job; automation is destroying jobs of the unskilled and the ill-trained. In the deep south there is but token desegregation; in the north de facto segregation is likely to continue for a long time. The Supreme Court struck down legal barriers to segregated housing but the reality is still with us. It will be a long, long time before the Negro achieves the equality of first class citizenship.

Thus far, the Negro has followed moderate leadership. He has on the whole accepted the non-violent program of these black followers of Mahatma Gandhi. There are others leaders preaching a different approach. There are those who look upon the moderates as Uncle Toms, and they urge a militant course.

So long as the Negro feels that he is making progress, he will follow moderate leadership. Convince him that he has reached a dead end and the Black Muslims will reap a harvest of new recruits. To the Negro the Civil Rights bill embodies his hope of a better life; if it is defeated or seriously changed, his faith in moderation will be shattered.

If the voters of Wisconsin are representative, we will have deep trouble. Endorsement of Gov. Wallace is a slap in the face to the Negro. Wallace is the governor of a state where they bombed a church at Sunday School time; Birmingham is a city of hate and violence and bloodshed. Alabama is a state where a nice little Eagle Scout murdered a Negro boy on a nice sunny morning and went unpunished. If you vote for Gov. Wallace, don't preach law and order to the Negro.

The Negro will lose in any resort to violence. He has no chance against the organized white majority. But we will lose something too. Our image as a Christian nation will be a little tarnished if the blood of a race riot flows in the streets.

The religious leaders of Wisconsin, Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish, spoke with one voice in condemning the Wallace candidacy. A quarter of a million voters, Democrat and Republican, rejected their plea. There is nothing in the teachings of Christ to justify racialism. The Sermon on the Mount was based on a doctrine of love instead of hate. Would it have some effect if it were read to the Rotary Club and to the union meeting, or are the teachings of Christ selling at a discount in 1964?

The Hard Facts of Profit and Loss

In that peculiar lingo that car dealers have created over the years, a "Whoofer Dealer" is an automobile dealer who concentrates on reaching a large sales volume by means of price advertising.

Such dealerships are usually located in large cities with high overhead—where they are compelled to keep sales rolling at a brisk pace in order to keep the bills paid and make a little money. Without approving his conduct, it is understandable why a dealer in this situation is willing to try this or that "gimmick", including misleading advertising, when sales slacken off.

Some dealers who operate this way (foolishly, we might add, for their own long term survival) regard any promotion as acceptable that creates showroom traffic as long as it doesn't directly break the law.

If you are shopping for a new or used car and you want to buy it at the best price you can for the value received, then remember this: Operating costs are lower in small towns and cities than in large cities and metropolitan areas. And unless your local dealer is just out to turn business away, you can almost invariably do better with him.

Don't be misled by claims and figures that you may not understand. You will be well repaid for the few minutes that it takes to sit down with myself or one of our salesmen and discuss car prices—our competitors and our own—before you make up your mind about buying.

Have a good look at everything before you leap.

Five staff members held over 240 evening interviews during the two week period.

A searching question may convince you that your friend is no better informed than you are.

Retires From Illinois Bell

Harry Greenlee

Former Antioch resident, Harry Greenlee, is retiring May 1 from Illinois Bell Telephone Company after 35 years of service. He and his wife, Crote, resided at 621 Lake Street, in Antioch for 30 years. A party will be given in Greenlee's honor at the Swedish Glee Club in Waukegan April 30. He is plant service foreman responsible for installation and maintenance of telephone equipment in the Antioch area.

A native of Colfax, Illinois, Greenlee began his Illinois Bell career in 1929 in the Evanston construction department. He has held various positions in suburban plants including: lineman, station installer, exchange repairman, combinationman, PBX repairman and testman. Greenlee is a Mason and past president of the Lake County Council of the Telephone Pioneers of America, an organization of veteran telephone people dedicated to serving the community.

The Greenlees have a daughter, Mrs. John Hacker, of Mt. Prospect. Hacker, like his father-in-law, works for the telephone company. He is division staff supervisor in the firm's central division traffic department in Chicago, composed of operators and supervisors who handle telephone calls.

The Hackers have two children, Paul, 10, and Larry, 7. Greenlee says his favorite pastimes are fishing, gardening and woodworking.

Politicos To.....

Allen J. Nelson, of Lake Bluff, unsuccessful candidate for Probate Clerk in 1962, is expected to draw strong support along the North Shore. Expected to receive the backing of the strong Waukegan contingent is Henry J. Bogdala, of Waukegan, while Mark Turner, of Antioch, and Fox Lake Mayor Joseph Armonde, are also listed as candidates.

The chairmen will be chosen by the precinct committees elected in the April 14 primary with the committees voting the total number of votes cast in their respective precincts in the election.

The chairmen will not only be the official heads of the parties for the next two years, but they will also have strong voices in the judicial convention to be held this summer to nominate Appellate and Circuit Court judges. They will also exert considerable influence on the delegates to the state representative nominating conventions to be held in Springfield on June 1.

The delegates elected from each party will undoubtedly nominate themselves, but the selection of the two extra nominees could depend on the county chairmen.

Principal speaker of the evening will be Theodore Koerner, president of Koerner & Koerner, Inc.

Electric Rates Cut On June 1

Commonwealth Edison Company will reduce electricity rates, effective June 1, for substantially all of its 2,200,000 customers, including those in the Public Service Company Division. The decrease will be at the rate of approximately $12,500,000 annually based on the 1963 volume of sales.

James W. Karber, Chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission, announced that new rate schedules have been filed following the request of the Commission that the Company, in the light of recent cuts in the federal corporate income tax rates, examine the current relationship between revenue and costs.

Most small residential customers, under the new schedule, will save at least 54 cents a year. The typical six-room house, using 350 kilowatt-hours or more a month, will save $2.04 a year.

Small and medium commercial and industrial customers will get savings aggregating over $8,340,000 annually. Large commercial and industrial customers will save about $1,200,000 a year. The balance of the reduction will be applied to governmental, railroad and other customers.

Mr. Karber said the Edison rate cut, reflecting the effect of the 1965 as well as the 1964 income tax reductions, is the largest made by any Illinois utility, and so far as is known the largest of any in the country.

Something New at Wilmot High

Wilmot High School is offering a unique substitute for persons who slipped up and didn't get their reservations to the "World's Fair."

The Wilmot High "Exposition," scheduled for April 29, will feature over 50 exhibits and demonstrations involving the entire student body. Every facet of the high school will be exposed to the public.

The exposition will open at 7 p.m. and run through 10 p.m. It will include exhibits and demonstrations in over 50 areas of school activities and curricula.

"The purpose of the exposition is two fold," assistant Principal Gene Olson said. "We want to acquaint the public with what is going on in our school and we think this will be a wonderful way to introduce grade school children to what's ahead for them in high school."

"Some of the demonstrations will be run on a continuous basis," Olson said, "and the wide range of exhibits offered will be a unique opportunity for the public to see the high school in a whole new light."

The program is not to be confused with the annual back to school program where parents visit their children's classrooms, Olson stressed. "This is for everybody, not just parents," he added.

A sample program lists a boys' gymnastic event, a language lab demonstration, a home economics style show and a driver's education exhibit.

Pollard & Wheeler, Rockford, of $600.00 was accepted. They will audit the school's accounts.

The board also approved the construction of six basketball standards in the blacktopped parking area north of the school building, cost not to exceed $550.

FLOWERS OR DISEASE?

ONCE, April showers brought only May flowers. But today, they can bring disease too!

At least, that's the report from countless communities about the country that now form our "septic-tank" suburbs. For sewage seepage pollutes the drinking water and brings the threat of disease like infectious hepatitis, typhoid, dysentery and some 70 new enteric viruses.

Following World War II, our country's population exploded. And, as the population grew, so did the need for housing. Almost overnight to meet housing needs, many were built so fast no public sewage systems were installed. Individual cesspools and septic tanks filled the gap.

These antiquated forms of sewage disposal can be efficient in good drainage areas. But they must be carefully designed and later carefully maintained by the homeowner. Unfortunately, the latter is often not the case. Neglect has done them. Then May spring rains cause them to overflow. And sewage seeps into the earth to mingle with our ground water supply. We must insist on modern sewage disposal and treatment facilities to insure a clean and plentiful water supply now and in the future.

For what we do today will determine tomorrow whether April showers bring May flowers or disease.

Amazing how little it costs to put a roof over your head

Amazing! Most people are downright flabbergasted the first time they check out a new compact Dart. And there's low and easy to take. It's even more amazing when you consider all that makes a Dart a Dart. Room, for instance. Size it up with knees, head, elbows, or luggage. You'll find large economy-size room—as much stretch-out and load space as in many standard-size cars. And there's large economy-size power to go with it... from a 170 cu. in. standard Six to an optional gung-ho 273 V8. Amazing! You bet. It's what happens when a quality car maker builds a compact bigger and quicker and then tops it off with such good looks.

DAR Speaker Stresses Need For Patriotism

Mrs. Joseph V. Hunley

Mrs. Joseph V. Hunley of Rio-Vai Acres, Antioch, was the main speaker for the Chicago Chapter daughters of the American Revolution meeting held at the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel in Chicago Thursday, April 16th.

In this time of national unrest, Mrs. Hunley emphasized the need to defend our Constitutional rights, to fight for what we believe is right, to go to the polls and vote and to do all in our power to make the fire of patriotism catch and burn and spread. To be truly patriotic, we must have a reverence for the past and an ambition to build a better future.

She pointed out the dangers of the Civil Rights Bill, as it is written, and the rights that will be taken away and the loss of individual freedom if the bill passes in its present form. "It is imperative that we protect the Constitution and preserve our American Heritage," she said.

Channel Lake News

By Louise Gutowski 395-1317

Mrs. Dorothy Enzenbacher, president of the Channel Lake PTA, is attending the PTA National Convention, in Chicago, at the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

The school library was toured at the last PTA meeting in salute to National Library Week. Also at this meeting a question and answer period was held to answer all questions of local residents on the proposed Educational Tax Referendum to go before the voters for the second time on May 2. The questions were answered by Mr. Howard Scott, superintendent of the school, and several members of the school board.

The 7th and 8th grades will present a one act play entitled, "Are We Dressing?" in May. The play will be held at the Channel Lake School and will be sponsored by the Channel Lake PTA.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zeien are the proud parents of a daughter, born April 10. The baby weighed 8 lbs. 4 ozs. and has been named Kristen Irene. Little Kristen is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Paul "Dutch" Zeien of Lake and Grapevine Ave. The Jr. Zeien family resides at Bluff Lake.

Mrs. Martha Kimmy has been hospitalized in Zion for the past week with a leg and foot ailment. Mrs. Kimmy lives on Lake Ave. Anyone wishing to send cards may do so by sending them to Zion Community Hospital, Zion.

Mrs. Frank Hennig has recently been released from Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago and is convalescing at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Moschal, of Chicago.

William Dowell, 80-year-old former resident of Channel Lake, flew here from Los Angeles last week to attend the funeral of Miss Norra Maguire, also a former resident of the area. Mr. Dowell stayed with his niece, Mrs. Paul Chase, and visited many of his old friends in the neighborhood.

The best work is done by men who are not afraid of their own ideas.

Harlan President of Forest Preserve

Kenneth Harlan, Lake Bluff, was elected president of the Lake County Forest Preserve Board of Commissioners last week, succeeding Talisto Aho of Waukegan. Harlan named Melvin Mullins, Avon Township, chairman on rules, and Aho chairman of the committee on committees.

Sam Smith, Deerfield Township, called the attention of the commissioners to a ruling by the attorney general which makes the commissioners ineligible to serve as forest rangers.

The commissioners designated 170 acres in Newport Township, east of Van Ratten Woods, as the county's first forest preserve district.

Antioch Witnesses Attend Convention

Delegates from Antioch were among the 1338 in attendance at the Christian convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in Watertown, Sunday, April 19. Robert Willett headed the Antioch delegation.

The high point of the convention was the Sunday public address, "Facing up to the Urgency of Our Times," by Angelo A. Catanzaro, district supervisor from New York.

Saturday afternoon during ordination ceremonies 23 new Witnesses were baptized by water immersion. Saturday evening a two-hour color film covering a world tour of Christian assemblies attended by over 580,000 persons.

The Chicago Motor Club says that both the driver and the passengers in his car always should leave the automobile from the sidewalk side. Opening your car door in the face of traffic could cause a passing car to hit you or your car, or to have an accident when it swerves to avoid your open door.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council THE LIFE YOU SAVE

By Phil Dykstra Director of Home Safety National Safety Council

Here are some tips that could help you save a life—your baby's! They cover subjects ranging from baby's bath to biting crib bars. They are designed to prevent accidents, the No. 1 killer of our young.

Baby's Bath—Always check water temperature to prevent scalding. Watch out for hot faucets. Never leave baby alone in the bath. Never answer the phone or the doorbell when you're busy bathing baby.

In the Crib—No pillow. Make sure the bars are up and locked when baby's in the crib and that the crib is coated with lead-free paint. Avoid using thin plastic mattress covers.

On the Floor When baby graduates from the crib on the floor, clear it of obstacles. Don't leave things around he can get hurt on. Pins, buttons, needles and other small objects should be put away. Remove small breakable objects from coffee tables and places within reach of young hands. Safety gates on porches, tops of stairs, window guards and securely fastened screens prevent accidents.

Toys—Choose them for safety. Give baby sturdy rattles, brightly colored objects hung in view, large, soft colored balls and push-pull toys with rounded edges. Stuffed animals or dolls make good toys for baby, as long as they don't have hard button eyes that can be pulled loose and swallowed.

Poisons—Tots will taste anything, even poisons. Are any of these items—all potential killers—within a child's reach in your home: aspirin, iodine, perfume, nail polish remover, drain cleaners, kerosene? There are many other household items that are also poisonous. For example: cleaning products such as bleaches, detergents, lye and other caustics, polishes and waxes, lighter fluids, fuel oils, paints, turpentine, paint remover and thinner, pesticides including mothballs, weed killers, fertilizers, cosmetics, hair spray, and permanent wave materials.

Many poisonous substances have delayed reaction and may not produce symptoms for some time after they're swallowed. Don't wait for symptoms to develop. Administer first aid and call a doctor.

It's interesting to note that 34 percent of all cases of poisoning of young children take place in the kitchen; 27 percent in the bedroom and 15 percent in the bathroom.

Babies and young children need constant protection. Parents must remove the hazards from their path and keep a sharp eye out for unexpected trouble.

Experience was expensive, but I had a lot of fun while being taught, says William Feather, editor of the Imperial Magazine.

If a man can make one woman happy, he's done something.

Good Boating Guides Abound

Planning any vacation can be half the fun. There are brightly illustrated brochures to examine, routes to plot and tide trips to consider.

Planning a vacation by boat—be it exploring the sun-drenched Florida keys or cruising the Mississippi—is no exception to the rule.

There is a wealth of information about the nation's waterways available from public and private sources, according to a recent survey by the Outboard Boating Club of America. The material ranges from directories of launching, docking and service facilities to highly detailed navigation charts, showing channel depths, tides and landmarks.

Publishers include state and Federal government agencies, chambers of commerce, newspapers, oil companies and commercial publishers.

Much of the material is free; only occasionally is there a nominal charge.

Here are just a few of the better examples:

Tennessee Valley Authority recreation maps, one for each lake in the TVA chain, include information on camps, sites, launching ramps, parks and docks. Prices range from 10 cents to 20 cents. Write: TVA Map Library, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Phillips Cruise Guides are maps showing distances, facilities, landmarks and other boating information for the Atlantic and Gulf coasts from New York to the Rio Grande, plus an additional map covering the Mississippi, the Illinois waterway and Lakes Michigan, Huron and Erie.

Free. Write: Phillips Petroleum Co., Bartlesville, Okla. Texaco Cruising Charts are available for Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf coasts, the Mississippi and its tributaries and the Great Lakes. Free. Write: Texaco Waterways Service, 135 E. 42nd St., New York 17, N.Y.

Mobile Oil Touring Service, 150 E. 42nd St., New York 17, N.Y., offers similar guides, as well as its booklet, "American Waterways," a listing of sources for charts and also recreational information.

Quimby's Harbor Guide to the Upper Mississippi is a unique, mile-by-mile listing of facilities, bridges, locks and navigational hazards on the Mississippi from St. Paul, Minn., to Davenport, Iowa. It also contains descriptions of the surrounding country, side and plant and animal life along the banks. Price $1. Write: Mildred Quimby, 322 1/2 Brady, Davenport, Iowa.

Federal government sources for waterways information and their general areas of responsibility are: U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, coastal waters; U. S. Lake Survey, Great Lakes and connecting rivers, lakes and canals; Corps of Engineers, inland waterways and reservoirs; Geological Survey, Dept. of Interior, maps showing streams, not usually covered on navigation charts; Bureau of Reclamation, guide to recreational facilities on its reservoirs in Western states.

Where Should I Live?

This is one in a series of articles directed at high school students entering college next fall and their parents.

URBANA, Ill.—Once a high school student has gained admission to the college or university of his choice, he immediately should begin to think about where he will live while attending the institution.

"Make your arrangements early—that's the best rule of thumb for housing," said Albert Kaufman, University of Illinois housing division. For students who will be entering the U. of I. at Urbana next fall, he suggested a visit to the housing division in the Student Services Building on campus, "the sooner the better." He said parents were welcome along with the students.

"We'd like them to sit down and talk with us," said Kaufman. "We then can answer specific questions in detail and show them what we have to offer." Available at the housing division are lists of vacant rooms, campus maps and other general information.

Three major categories of housing available for single students at Urbana are university residence halls, privately owned rooming houses, and fraternity and sorority housing.

For university facilities, the student should write to the housing division. Privately owned accommodations should be reserved in person and on the basis of a personal inspection, Kaufman said. There is a list at the housing division of "approved" accommodations.

Under a new program this year, pledges for sororities will be required by Panhellenic Council to live in university-approved housing other than sorority chapter houses. After a formal rush in February, there will be an open rush for the remainder of the second semester to fill pledge quotas and house vacancies.

Fraternities, also under a new program this year, will entertain rushees May 15-17.

Safety Commission To Present Awards

The Lake County Safety Commission, with Dr. W. C. Petty, County Superintendent of Schools, is sponsoring a High School Awards Presentation Program at a noon luncheon on Tuesday, April 28.

The Commission is conducting the awards program for 18 Lake County high schools in appreciation for their participation in a recent survey made on driver training.

Sheriff Charles E. Larson, Chairman of the Safety Commission, stated that representatives from the high schools, members of the Safety Commission and various county officials have been invited to attend. The Honorable Minard E. Hulse will be the main speaker.

SAFETY HOLES

"We notice nowadays there is a tendency for drivers to sort of ooze through stop signs. Most cars don't need to be stopped to shift to low any more so it's natural to move the foot over the inch or so from brake to gas and go if the coast is clear. This procedure stands for every stop except the one at Glen and War Memorial. There the road, if it can be called a road, is so pitted and torn up the car must be stopped for the driver to get back in. You might say there's safety in them that pot holes—Junction City Observer.

at chapter houses on the Champaign-Urbana campus. Rushing and pledging will continue throughout the summer.

To become a candidate for pledging, a high school senior who holds a university acceptance certificate must register his desire to be rushed. His name will go on a list at Interfraternity Council headquarters.

Students interested in fraternities and sororities should write to Family Housing Office for information on university-owned housing. He said, however, that most married students live in privately owned accommodations, which are listed at the housing division.

Referendum on Tax Raise At Channel L.

Saturday, May 2, is the date for the referendum at Channel Lake School.

The school board is asking that the educational tax rate of the school be raised 20c, from 71c to 91c.

The referendum was defeated on January 25, the first time it was presented to the voters.

Channel Lake School District has one of the lowest educational tax rates in the county. Principal Howard Scott and board members say the school funds will be in the red before the end of this school year.

Mixed League Has Roll-Off For Position

The race for first, second and third places in the Wednesday night Chain O' Lakes Mixed League went down to the wire, with Barnes TV finally holding first place by winning three games on the final night of bowling last week, and Dortmund's and Lake Villa Lumber competing in an after-league roll-off to decide second and third places.

Dortmund's won 1 and Lake Villa Lumber 2 in regular games on the last night, to tie for second and third places. In the one-game roll-off, Dortmund's won to take second place, with Lake Villa Lumber third.

Other standings in the league were Reid's Trucking, 4th; Prestige Insurance, 5th; Antioch Builders, 6th; Hucker Plymouth, 7th; Ben Franklin 8th; Mazzucco Insurance 9th; Meinersmann Insurance 10th; First National Bank 11th, and Jim's Standard, 12th.

Helen Barnes, league secretary, announces that there are a few openings in the league for next season. Anyone interested can call her at 395-1155 or at 395-1192.

Since it takes time and distance in which to stop, a motorist always should maintain a safe distance between his car and the one ahead, says the Chicago Motor Club. During a rainstorm a motorist not keeping this safe distance may find it impossible to match the sudden stop made by the driver ahead.

Jet-smooth Luxury Chevrolet makes roads feel as smooth as the maps they're printed on Run your finger over a map and find yourself a place to go. That's a preview of how it feels to get there in a Chevrolet.

We've put what we think is the best suspension system in its class under this great highway performer. A big husky coil spring at each wheel and double-action shock absorbers to soak up bumps. Over 700 sound deadeners throughout the chassis and that spacious Body by Fisher to blot out noise from road and wind.

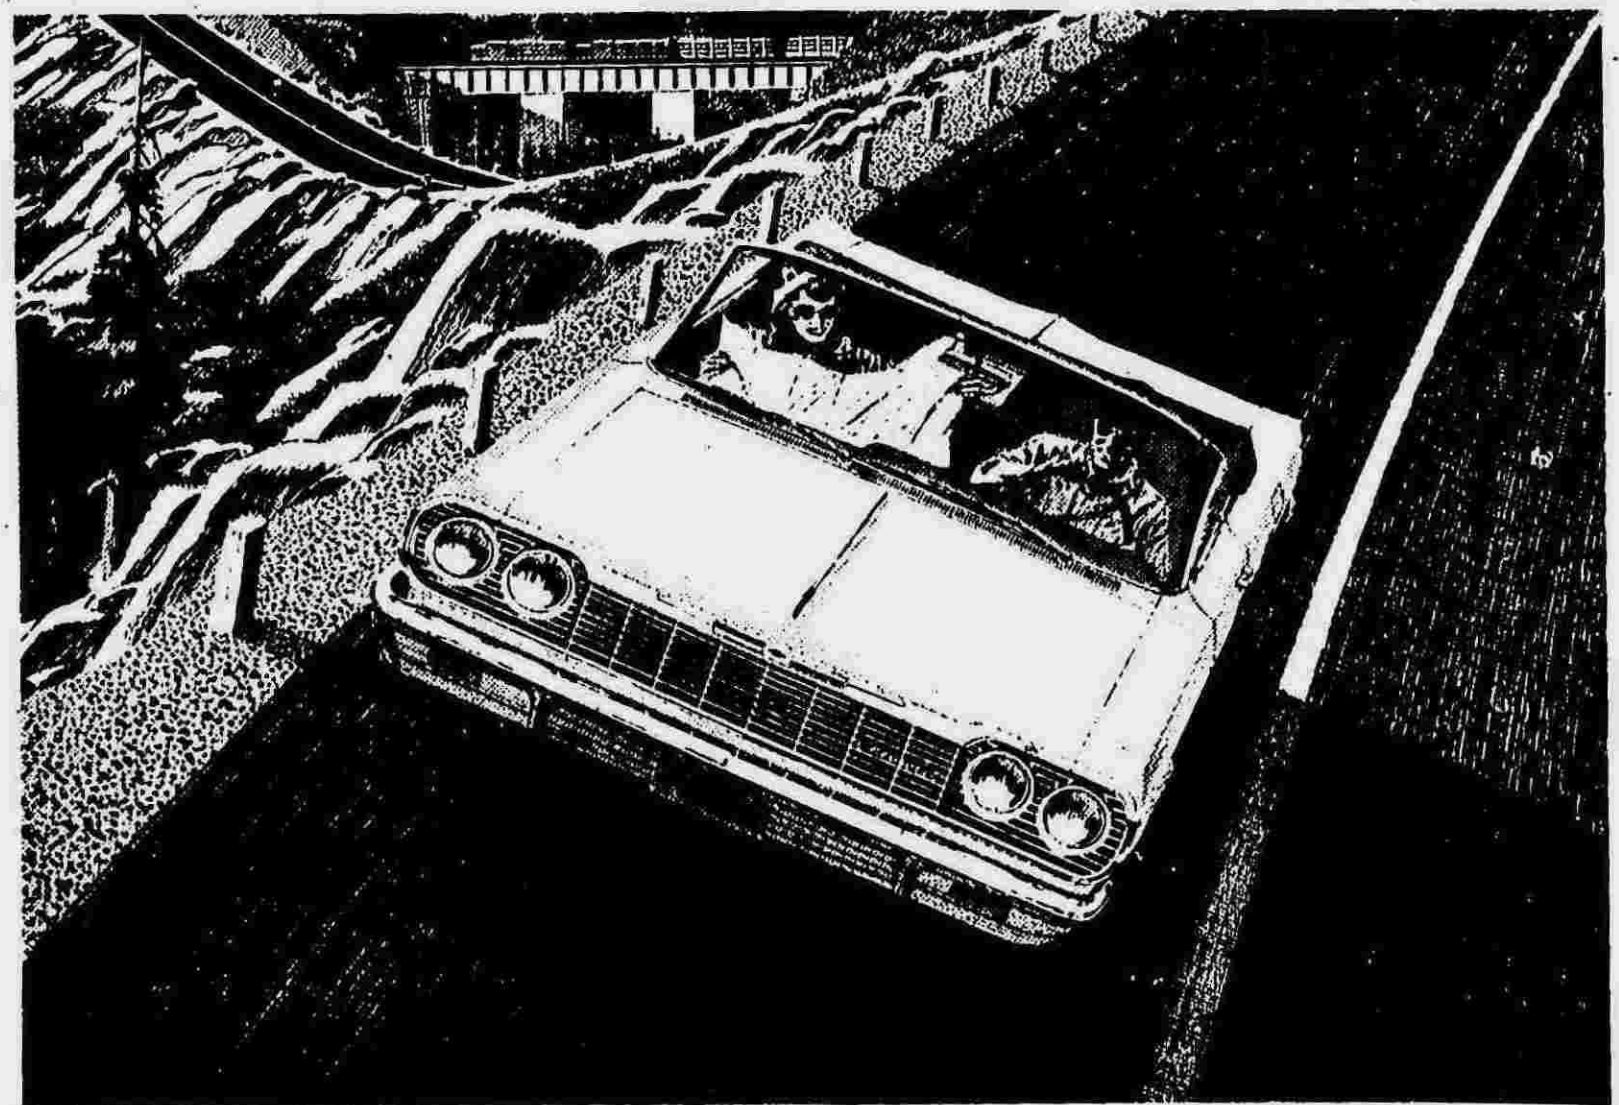

There's a lot of other Jet-smooth luxury, too. FOR THE GREAT HIGHWAY PERFORMERS

Wide seats with foam-cushioning front and rear. Luxurious wall-to-wall deep-twist carpeting (this year it comes with even the lowest priced Biscaynes). A choice of seven great engines, all precision-balanced for smoother running, with four smooth-shifting transmissions to match. Everything that makes Chevrolet the great highway performer it is.

So get out those road maps. And wherever you go, get off to a good start—during Trade 'N' Travel Time at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Sequoit Track Team First in Eight Events

Sequoit tracksters finished first in eight events Thursday afternoon and outpointed McHenry and Round Lake in a triangular meet at Antioch. Jim Edwards set a new school record in the broad jump with a leap of 20'3" to finish first ahead of teammates Bruce Dalgard and Bob Schenk.

Tom Morgan came in first in the hundred yard dash and then placed second in the 220 later in the meet. Jim Effinger and Tom Tantlinger led the way in the 880 and the 440 with respective times of 2:08.2 and 54.5. "Both very good times," coach Roger Andrews said.

The Sequoits continued to dominate the relays, taking both the 880 and the mile events. The mile relay team finished with a time of 3:40.3.

Other first place finishers for the Sequoits were Vince Casella in the shotput and Bob Schenk in the high jump. "Vince had a very good throw of 47' 6 1/4," Andrews said.

Bruce Dalgard added his team's cause by finishing second in three events, the 120 yard high hurdles, the 180 yard low hurdles and the broad jump.

Final totals for the meet showed the Sequoits with 76 points, followed by McHenry with 58 and Round Lake with 14.

McHenry edged the Sequoits' soph squad 70 to 65, while Round Lake trailed with 12 1/2. Dave Fabry again had a big day for himself, placing first in the 180 yard low hurdles with a very good time of 23.3 seconds. Dave came back later and ran the 220 in 26.2, good for second place in the event.

Tyrone Walls picked up 10 first place points in the field events. Walls threw the shot 43' 6 1/2" to finish ahead of his teammate Bill Meyer. Tyrone also took first in the broad

Falcon Nine Drops Pair

By John Hansen

Salem Central baseball team made it 4 games in a row without a win as the Falcons dropped a pair of SEB Conference games to Waterford and St. Mary's. Racine Park and Racine Lutheran beat the Falcons in the first two games of the year.

Greg Klemko and Jim Herda limited Waterford to two hits but Salem committed 5 costly errors to give the Wolverines an 8-4 win. Klemko had 2 hits to pace Salem. Another fine pitching effort went for naught as Herda threw a 2-hitter and lost 3-1. Two errors led to St. Mary's 3 runs that beat the Falcons. Herda struck out 5 and walked 3.

If this Wide-Track Pontiac Catalina hung to the highway any closer, it'd be a coat of paint. Pitch and sway, Wide-Tracks don't. Gadgets Go To Sea

To look at the boat, you'd think someone was running an outfit for computer machines.

Wires sprouted from tiny black boxes; needles traced wiggly lines across unwinding tapes; green lights blinked on and off; cameras whirled.

But electronic brains have not taken up pleasure boating yet. The scene was Lake Hayes, Arizona, and the boat was being run through tests by engineering committees of the Outboard Boating Club of Tuesday, April 7, for the year beginning June 1. The following were elected: Mrs. Richard Ruck, Sr., president; Mrs. Melvin Colbert, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Helgel, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Bernard Knipfle, recording secretary; Mrs. Albert Mohr, treasurer.

Secretaries of lines of work are Mrs. Al Flood, promotion; Mrs. Herbert Fischer, missions; Mrs. Virgil Smith, older youths; Mrs. Emory Holvey, children; Mrs. Albert Mohr, supply; Mrs. Orlo Bartholomew, spiritual life; Mrs. John Miller, local church activity; Mrs. Donald Warner, student work; Mrs. John Perry, literature; and Mrs. M. J. Connell, Christian-social relations.

On April 23, the W.S.C.S. of the Lake Villa Methodist church will prepare and serve the St. Mark's Lutheran church Mother and Daughter banquet at the church. In turn, the Women's organization of St. Mark's will cook and serve the dinner at the Lake Villa Mother-Daughter banquet on May 6.

On April 28 the W.S.C.S. will prepare and serve the Father and Son banquet to be held at the Lake Villa Methodist church.

Mrs. Bert Hooper and Mrs. Martin Lau will be hostesses for the next W.S.C.S. meeting on May 5. On that day, officers will be installed and final preparations made for the Mother and Daughter banquet to be held May 6, at 7 p.m. Tickets for the banquet may be obtained from Mrs. Albert Mohr. After 175 tickets are sold no more will be available. As usual, plans for the entertainment are kept secret, and as usual, a most pleasant evening is anticipated.

AMERICAN TO DETERMINE A NEW FORMULA FOR HORSEPOWER CAPACITY

The formula is the basis for the OBC horsepower capacity plate found on many outboard boats. The plate provides boaters with a guide to correctly matched boat and motor combination.

Goals in the test were twofold:—Revise the "rule of thumb" formula which has been in use for five years, to keep pace with the many advances in boat design and building.

—Devise a method of determining horsepower capacity by instruments alone. This method would be more accurate than the formula and wouldn't require periodic updating.

An eight-member evaluation jury ran 21 boat and engine combinations through test courses and included sudden, random maneuvers. Then many of these same boats were put through their paces carrying instrument packages which recorded rates and amounts of all movements.

Results: The tests showed that the formula can be revised so that boats in the larger—30 hp. and up—category can safely carry more power than before. Manufacturers may now use this revised formula as a guide in designing new models.

The engineers also moved closer to discovery of a fully instrumented method of determining horsepower capacity. They say that the boats are now capable of meeting certain maneuverability requirements and that their instruments are capable of recording these maneuvers.

The program will be completed once a method of combining maneuver requirements with comfort and safety requirements is discovered.

OBC expects the solution in the near future. Then the instruments will be simplified and made available to each boat builder.

The engineering committees are also engaged in many other projects to make boating better, including: Boat load capacity. In addition to horsepower capacity, the OBC rating plate gives the recommended load capacity of a boat in pounds. This enables boatmen to avoid overloading their craft.

Douglas Urges Young Men To Apply Early

Washington, D. C.—U. S. Senator Paul H. Douglas today announced that the Civil Service Commission will conduct an Academy Designation Examination on July 13 for all young men who have applied to him for a nomination to one of the U. S. service academies. The examination will be administered in 50 cities in Illinois and in hundreds of other locations across the nation. All young men interested in competing for one of Senator Douglas' nominations must write to him before June 1.

Senator Douglas said the applicants should be in good health, have 20/20 vision, rank in the upper 1/3 of their high school graduating class, and be residents of Illinois. Since the class for which the boys will compete begins July 1, 1965, both Juniors and Seniors in high school should apply this year.

Senator Douglas is allowed to have five young men under his sponsorship in each of the military academies. For each vacancy he must fill for the Naval and Air Force Academies, he nominates six young men to compete to fill the vacancy. For the U. S. Military Academy, he may nominate four for each vacancy. In addition, Senator Douglas may nominate 10 young men to compete state-wide for the 15 vacancies allotted each year to Illinois for the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy. The Senator estimates that he will have between 25 and 30 nominations to make this year.

All young men interested in competing this year should write to Senator Paul H. Douglas at 219 South Clark St., Chicago, Illinois 06004.

Expert Views Museum Plans

John B. Cabot, Chief Architect of the National Park Service, just completed a visit to the Lake County Museum of History. Mr. Cabot made a special trip from his offices in Washington, D. C., in order to act as consultant.

Designer of more than 80 museums, Cabot is considered to be the nation's foremost architect by most museum professionals. Following his visit, Mr. Cabot said, "The Museum's plans for its facilities are challenging and most worthwhile. The new Lake County Museum of History will be a major museum, using the proposed exhibit concepts."

Cabot added, "All Lake County citizens should support this educational and cultural institution, because it is unique and irreplaceable."

Plans call for a local architect to be engaged in the designing the building.

General Chairman of the Museum's fund-raising campaign, A. C. Burrows, Rear Admiral USN (Ret.), said, "The kick-off date for the formal solicitation phase of the campaign will be announced shortly. Of course, donations to the Museum are tax-deductible, to the extent provided by law."

Ain't It the Truth?

We remember the spaghetti we ate in Palermo, the duck at the Tour d'Argent, and the beefsteak and kidney pie at Simpson's long after we have forgotten the masterpieces in St. Peter's, the Uffizi, and the Louvre.

While walking along a highway at night always wear or carry something white, says the Chicago Motor Club. Pedestrians wearing dark clothing cannot be seen by motorists driving on dark roadways at high speeds.

Buick has a great transmission.

An automobile transmission, we grant you, isn't the most soul-stirring subject on earth. Nothing to look at either.

But if you'd like for your next new car to give you a better break on performance and gasoline mileage, something happened last week to be your guide.

The Los Angeles to New York Mobil Economy Run proved one thing for sure. There's quite a difference in the transmissions of new cars.

Three out of four for Buick

The long-time champion in the transmission league—Buick—walked off with the 1964 economy pennant. No other single make of car won as many events as Buick. Four entries, three winners.

The winning Special carried the new Super Turbine 300 automatic transmission; the LeSabre was equipped with the Super Turbine 400 (both optional at extra cost). They're the latest in a long line of Buick transmissions well known for their smoothness and absence of "shift feel". The Super Turbine is a refined and improved torque converter type to help you safely pass cars and trucks as well as gas stations.

You'll hear a lot about it in the next couple of years as this modern kind of transmission is adopted by more and more car builders.

What about engines?

Of course, an efficient transmission gets more efficient when teamed up with a lean, agile engine. The winning Buick power plants were our new V-6 and V-8. The 300 cubic inch V-8 in the winning Buick Special (the lowest priced of all Buicks) and the Buick LeSabre (the lowest priced big Buick) is like a well-conditioned fighter. All muscle, no fat. Weighs in at far less than other V-8's of similar punch. It took every other V-8 in the Economy Run.

Your type of driving—regular gas
The Run was through cities and towns, across super highways, in traffic, out of traffic. This was not race track driving or proving ground driving. This was your kind of driving—even though you can't expect to get as good mileage as these expert drivers in their finely tuned production cars. The distance was 3,243 miles, about what most families log in four months. All three Buicks used regular gas. So the Economy Run is not just a cross country tour for the Mobil people and a few car buffs. It's a reliable test of a car's power team and what it's able to squeeze out of its fuel.

We don't expect everybody to rush out this week-end to buy a new Buick just because we won a few economy trophies. There are so many other good reasons for leaning to Buick that economy usually gets second billing. There's styling, naturally. An unusually great ride. Extraordinary engineering and workmanship. And very young performance. Small wonder Buick sales are running at 11.5% over last year.

But it's nice to get economy as a plus in a Buick. Beyond the dollars saved on gasoline, there's a certain pride in knowing you have a car that's built to get the most out of every tank of gasoline.

Wouldn't You Really Rather Have a Buick?

Expert to Speak On Landscaping

Lake County residents will get landscaping tips from an expert when they attend the landscaping meeting Thursday, April 23.

The meeting, which has been arranged by Farm Advisor Ray T. Nicholas, representing the Cooperative Extension Service of the University of Illinois, will be held in the Farm Bureau Building on the Lake County Fair Grounds starting at 7:30 p.m. There is no charge for attendance and all interested parties are invited to attend.

Mr. W. N. Nelson, Jr., noted authority on landscaping, author of the widely read book, "Landscaping Your

THE ANTIOCH NEWS 10 THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1964

Firmness seems to pay off, except in domesticity.

U. Of I. Makes Campsite Study

URBANA — Family campers on short excursions tend to willingly forego many "comforts of home." Yet they want some simple physical facilities at their campsites, judging from a recent University of Illinois study.

This study, which included 158 families, attempted to find out what campers thought about the physical setup of campgrounds. The interviewed families camped in two Shawnee National Forest campgrounds, Lake Glendale and Pounds Hollow.

Of the facilities that the families said they looked for in any campsite, good clean water for drinking headed the list. Hot showers ranked low on the list. So did electricity and flush toilets.

Harvey Schweitzer, extension rural sociologist, University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service, reports that nearly all the families found camping facilities satisfactory. These facilities included graveled drive and pad for tent or trailer, cooking grill, picnic table and wood supply for each family. Every two units had covered garbage facilities. Every five units had cold running water for drinking and a clean pit toilet.

Most of the families liked their campsite locations. The most frequent reasons were closeness to water, privacy and shade. Those who did not like the locations gave these reasons: too far from the lake, insects, uneven ground, too sunny and too large gravel on the pad.

Swimming and boat launching and docking facilities were convenient to the campsites. The families made extensive use of these facilities while they camped. One hundred twenty-eight families went swimming, 99 went fishing and 37 went boating.

Karl Munson, University of Illinois extension recreationist, points out that the families preferred campgrounds close to home, probably because their stay averaged only two days. One hundred five of these families came from within 100 miles of the campsite.

Most of the families had previously had none to three years of camping experience, so they were not "seasoned campers." The average was four members per family, two adults and two children. According to Munson, tent living predominated among the groups in the study. Most of the others used trailers or tent-trailers. Only a few used station wagon-tents or pickup trucks.

In answer to a query about who or what influenced their choice of campgrounds, most of the groups said personal recommendations of friends, relatives and co-workers. The second most important influence was advertisements in such publications as newspapers and camping and other magazines.

Schweitzer and Munson, co-supervisors of the study, point out that this study showed up only family preferences for short-stay camping. Different results might be expected for those camping for longer than two days.

"How fancy should campsites be?" Munson says the answer is still not known. Perhaps after more research, campground owners and operators can come up with sites that more nearly suit most camping families' needs and desires," says Munson.

FHA Banquet For Mothers

The FHA (Future Homemakers) of Central High School honored their mothers at a banquet at the school on Thursday evening. About 150 girls and guests were served a chicken dinner prepared in part by the girls themselves.

After the dinner Mrs. Norman Drissel spoke briefly. She was followed by president Linda Schmidt who acted as toastmistress. She introduced the speaker, Mrs. Mercedes Chalmers from the Patricia Stevens Charm School who spoke to the girls, using as her topic "Charm in a Capsule."

Following the speaker, Mrs. Mary Polley introduced the next year's chapter mother, Mrs. E. Kramer, mother of the incoming president. Honorary memberships were awarded to the following: Mrs. Marion Tiernan, business teacher at the high school; Mrs. Blodina Kasprzyk, physical education teacher, and Miss Frances Murphy, English teacher. The Ag teacher, Mr. St. John, who with his boys served the dinner, was also awarded honorary membership.

After the presentation of honorary memberships, Mrs. Donna Cowan, home ec. teacher, presented awards to 9 outstanding senior girls and to those who had earned their FHA degrees this year.

After the awards were presented, a candlelight service and installation of new officers took place. Those becoming new officers this year are:

President—Diana Kramer
Vice-Pres.—Elnore Reiter
Secretary—Diane Daniels
Treasurer—June Schmidt
Recreation Leader—Donna Richter
Historian—Linda Schenning
Parliamentarian—Linda Wack
Reporter—Judy Rudolph
New Chapter Mothers—Mrs. Schmidt and Mrs. Kramer

The Senior class of Salem Central High School presented a Variety Show last Saturday night in the school auditorium. All entertainment was presented by the student body.

Illinois Has Highly Rated Driver Training

Springfield, Ill., April 17—Ray Page, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has forwarded a report on the Illinois High School Driver Education Program to the Swedish Embassy in Washington, D. C., it was announced today.

Page said that the report was sent on request of J. de Dardel, Counselor, Swedish Embassy. Mr. de Dardel said that the report will be presented to Ragne Wiberg, of the Swedish Ministry of Communications, and will be studied by a special committee on vehicle drivers, appointed by the Swedish Minister of Transport to prepare a proposal concerning problems related to traffic safety in Sweden.

Mr. de Dardel said the request for the Illinois report was made on the recommendation of Dr. Robert L. Marshall, Associate Executive Secretary of the National Commission of Safety Education of the National Education Association who advised him "that the State of Illinois has a highly developed and superior drivers' training program."

Top Students Get 1st Chance to Enroll

High School seniors who rank in the top 25 per cent of their classes have until July 10 to take advantage of the first phase of the "progressive admission program" at the University of Illinois Chicago Undergraduate Division on Navy Pier.

Under the program, applications for admissions from the upper-quarter only are considered until the 10th. Beginning on the 11th, applications will be considered from the top 50 per cent of the high school seniors.

Harold E. Temmer, associate dean of admissions and records at the Chicago branch, said applications from all other students will be considered after July 24th. He pointed out the procedure varies for out-of-state students.

Temmer pointed out that the progressive admission of students who are best qualified and thus most likely to succeed in their university work and remain till graduation. Until our facilities are expanded sufficiently to accommodate all qualified applicants, the Chicago Undergraduate Division of the University must limit admission to those who show the greatest aptitude for college.

Open House at Great Lakes May 16

A special "open house" at Great Lakes is being planned to let the public visit the world's largest naval training center on Armed Forces Day, May 16.

Captain William H. McCaughey, Armed Forces Day project officer for the 27,000-man base, today invited the public to see the parades, maneuvers, exhibits and other special events being planned for the day.

The Great Lakes open house will begin at 9 a.m. and last until 5 p.m. Special buses, with veteran petty officers as guides, will take visitors to all points of interest.

Fifteen independent commands and activities at Great Lakes will be participating in the open house.

Service around the clock

The Chicago Motor Club points out that this is the time of the year when motorists encounter many dangerous chuck holes and pavement cracks on streets and highways. Damage to tires and wheels is not the only problem which can result from running over one of these chuck holes. Motorists are warned that autos traveling at excessive speeds can be thrown into oncoming traffic or turned over when hitting a large hole.
